DECLARATION OF KEITH A. RINDLESBACH

Assistant Commissioner of Patent and Trademarks
Washington, D.C. 20231

I, Keith A. Rindlesbach, declare as follows:

1. I am the named inventor in the above-captioned application and the subject matter described and claimed therein.
2. The methods of treatment of Examples 1 and 2 of the present specification are not prophetic, and were performed by me on an individual with Alzheimer's Dementia under the supervision of a physician.

3. The individual exhibited dementia prior to beginning the treatment, including visual fixation, mental confusion, short term and long term memory deficit, lack of strength, failure to eat, etc. During and following treatment, the individual became alert and conscious, resumed feeding and taking care of self, exhibited recovery of short term and long term memory functionality, and recovered much of the individual's pre-dementia personality.

4. I, Keith A. Rindlesbach, declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful, false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code, and that such willful, false statement may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issuing thereon.

DATED this 23rd day of March, 2007.
